Peter O'Toole: Along the Sky Road to Aqaba

Documentary about legendary actor Peter O'Toole who brought a touch of danger to his art and a stroke of madness to his life yet inspired a generation of movie makers.

Reflecting O'Toole's theatrical legacy, this film is structured into four acts each introduced by a quote about O'Toole that encapsulates his life during a specific period.

Each act expands into a holistic narrative addressing questions such as his self-belief, his alcoholism, his relationships with women, his belief in socialism and his selective embrace of Irishness.

While O'Toole's words (gleaned from hundreds of hours of archival interviews) act as a narrator of his own journey, Jim Sheridan further explores the story through interviews with O'Toole's family, artists, actors and directors that knew him well.

Premier League

It's a duo of vital games this week that may decide who stays and who gets dumped from the topflight. We start things off on Saturday evening as Leeds United host Crystal Palace. On paper, this would seem to be a must-win game for Leeds, who are in the bottom three and need some three point games to get them out of contention. However, the Eagles are in dismal form themselves, not having won a game since November last year. Their mid-table position is just far from safe – just three points above the drop zone – so it's down to Viera's men to dig deep to stop Palace being dragged down into relegation contention.

Then on Sunday we head to St Mary's for another team with an uphill struggle – Southampton. The Saints are bottom of the league and will have pull off a history-making fight to pull themselves out – all the harder when they're facing the reigning Premier League champions Manchester City – themselves trying to make up ground against this season's favourites, Arsenal. Southampton will need all the saints to come marching in to pull this one off.

SPFL: Celtic v Rangers

The Old Firm clashes once again in the final derby fixture for this season. As things stand, Celtic are leading this year's SPFL table with a nine-point advantage over their Glasgow rivals, and have taken the lion share of the victories in their recent encounters, with victories in the Scottish League Cup and a 4-0 Premiership win back in September.

NBA: Play-In Tournament

We're reaching the end of the NBA season and it's time to gear up and get ready for the postseason tipoff. Before we begin the main event - the NBA Playoffs - we need to establish the field with the Play-In Tournament. This determines the final two playoff seeds amongst the seventh through tenth teams with the highest winning percentages in the season for both the Eastern and Western Conferences. It's in effect a last-chance opportunity for eight teams who did not receive automatic entry into the Playoffs, with two teams from each conference going through to make up the final 16. Last year, none of the four teams that advanced from the Play-In were able to advance through the first round of the Playoffs, so we live in hope for an underdog story to come out of this season and challenge the three-time and reigning champions, the Golden State Warriors, in the big money games.
