On Sky Showcase this week

Showcasing new shows and familiar favourites from across Sky. It's never been easier to discover it all.

The investigation continues in the second part of The Essex Murders, while Jim and Nancy pursue more avian subjects in Painting Birds with Jim & Nancy Moir.

We're following cheetahs, elephants, wild dogs and more in the Sky Original nature documentary series Chasing the Rains, and wildlife of a very different kind in a new episode of the 1980s-set crime drama A Town Called Malice.

The Flash races to action as we count down to last ever episode, and we round off the week by spending time in a very American workplace in the all-new second season of the brilliant comedy American Auto.

Perry Mason Chapter Nine

Season 2, episode 1

Based on the work of Erle Stanley Gardner, this drama series traces the origins of famed criminal defence lawyer Perry Mason (Matthew Rhys). The second season picks up with Perry in the throes of the Los Angeles legal system during the height of the Great Depression. Alongside crackerjack assistant Della Street (Juliet Rylance) and hardboiled ex-cop Paul Drake (Chris Chalk), the former PI garners a reputation for taking on clients that few would dare to defend. Months after the Dodson trial shook the city, Perry is readjusting to life as a civil attorney when a high-profile murder case brings him back into the fold. As the DA homes in on a pair of brothers from a desolate Hooverville, Perry is thrust into the centre of a vast conspiracy and forced to reckon with what it truly means to be guilty.

As Perry grapples with a new career, Della keeps the firm afloat; Paul accepts a questionable job; Holcomb partners with a powerful ally.

Blueback

What: Drama, Family (2022, Sky PG)

Who: Mia Wasikowska, Radha Mitchell, Eric Bana, Ilsa Fogg, Ariel Donoghue, Liz Alexander, Clarence Ryan

Director: Robert Connolly

While researching Australia's deteriorating coral reefs, marine biologist Abby receives word of her elderly mother Dora's stroke. As she rushes to her seaside hometown to care for Dora, Abby recalls her childhood years spent living in concert with the ocean, and her mother's efforts to protect the bay from greedy developers and invasive fishermen alike, often to the detriment of their own relationship. Among the coral gardens, Abby befriends a rare fish, the blue groper - affectionately named Blueback - a tether to her environmentalism, and the key to reminding Abby and Dora of their love for each another and the vulnerable waters they call home. Based on Tim Winton's 1997 novella of the same name, Blueback is a complex and emotional film about a mother and daughter's passion for the ocean and each other. Mia Wasikowska, Radha Mitchell, and Eric Bana star in this poignant, visually stunning film that serves as a beautiful reminder of the power within all of us to make a difference.

Kurt Vonnegut: Unstuck in Time

A dazzling, worthy tribute to Vonnegut and a compelling introduction for the uninitiated. The feature documentary - the first of its kind on Vonnegut - is a deep, immersive dive into the author's upbringing and his creative output. It spans his childhood in Indianapolis, his experience as a Prisoner of War in World War II, his marriage, family, and divorce, his early careers as a publicist for General Electric and a car salesman, and his long years as a struggling writer, leading to eventual superstardom in 1969 following the publication of his lightning-bolt anti-war novel Slaughterhouse-Five.

The film began 39 years ago when young, fledging filmmaker Robert Weide wrote a letter to his literary idol proposing a documentary on Vonnegut's life and work. Shooting began in 1988, and the resulting film reflects the friendship and bond Weide and Vonnegut formed over the decades. In the film, past, present, and future cease to become linear as Weide strives to get an overview of his subject's life and his own role in it.

Puss in Boots: The Last Wish

What: Animation, Adventure, Comedy (2023, Sky PG)

Who: Antonio Banderas, Salma Hayek, Olivia Colman, Harvey Guillen, Samson Kayo, Wagner Moura, Florence Pugh, John Mulaney

Director: Joel Crawford

This fall, everyone's favourite leche-loving, swashbuckling, fear-defying feline returns. For the first time in more than a decade, DreamWorks Animation presents a new adventure in the Shrek universe as daring outlaw Puss in Boots discovers that his passion for peril and disregard for safety have taken their toll. Puss has burned through eight of his nine lives, though he lost count along the way. Getting those lives back will send Puss in Boots on his grandest quest yet. Academy Award® nominee Antonio Banderas returns as the voice of the notorious PiB as he embarks on an epic journey into the Black Forest to find the mythical Wishing Star and restore his lost lives. But with only one life left, Puss will have to humble himself and ask for help from his former partner and nemesis: the captivating Kitty Soft Paws (Oscar® nominee Salma Hayek). In their quest, Puss and Kitty will be aided--against their better judgment--by a ratty, chatty, relentlessly cheerful mutt, Perro (Harvey Guillén, What We Do in the Shadows). Together, our trio of heroes will have to stay one step ahead of Goldilocks (Oscar® nominee Florence Pugh, Black Widow) and the Three Bears Crime Family, "Big" Jack Horner (Emmy winner John Mulaney, Big Mouth) and terrifying bounty hunter, The Big Bad Wolf (Wagner Moura, Narcos).

Premier League: Newcastle V Tottenham

While Arsenal look to lock in their first Premier League win since 2004, and the scramble to survive relegation continues, there is a third battle taking place this season that you don't want to overlook – the battle for third and fourth place. The coveted top four will progress to next season's UEFA Champions League group stage, and the last two places are contested by the two teams meeting this week – Newcastle and Tottenham. The Magpies will have home advantage in this pivoted game as Spurs travel to St James' Park in a must-win game for the London side. With two games in hand and a 2-1 win in the reverse fixture, Eddie Howe's team are a clear and present danger to Spurs' Champions League hopes.
