

Weekly Highlights

Week 05/06 - Saturday 3rd - Friday 9th February 2024

Six Nations: Italy v England
Saturday, 1.30pm

G'wed

Full series drop on ITVX on Monday 5th February

ITVX

An uplifting, heart-warming, and hilarious portrayal of teenagers today and how they view the world as told by the distinctive voice of Liverpool and some of its residents.

This comedy delves into the working-class culture of 'surviving with a sense of humour' and the lived experience of the kids from the city will be at the heart of this series while tackling big issues like grief, sex, diversity and class differences with a wicked humour.

From Reece - the anti-hero at the heart of the show who is a superficially misbehaving, potty-mouthed lad but constantly surprises whether quoting Mother Teresa, his knowledge of the work of John Steinbeck, or his incredibly mature take on grief - to Aimee, a ferociously determined go-getter who is also emotionally mature - G'wed showcases a part of the country and a bunch of characters that you rarely see on TV.

Six Nations: Italy v England
Saturday, 1.30pm
3rd February
ITV1

Mark Pougatch presents alongside Jonny Wilkinson, Maggie Alphonsi and Ugo Monye as England kick off their 2024 Six Nations with a trip to Rome to face Italy.

Steve Borthwick's England will go into the tournament with confidence following their third-place finish at the World Cup, and will expect to come away with a victory as they take regular strugglers Italy. Nick Mullins, Ben Kay and Lawrence Dallaglio commentate.

Wheel of Fortune
Saturday, 5.25pm
3rd February
ITV1

Graham Norton hosts a modern take on the game show where contestants solve word puzzles to win cash prizes that are determined by spinning a giant wheel.

Graham Norton hosts as business strategist Mubeen, theatre technician Emma, and ambulance controller Paddy all try to claim a possible 50,000 pounds by spinning the Wheel and solving puzzles while trying to avoid the bankrupts... but who will triumph?

The Masked Singer
Saturday, 6.25pm
3rd February
ITV1

Joel Dommett hosts as the surreal and surprising singing show where celebrities compete in disguise returns to ask just one question - who is behind the mask?

TV's craziest guessing game continues with host Joel Dommett joined by Rita Ora, Jonathan Ross, Davina McCall, Mo Gilligan and special guest Sir Lenny Henry this time. The singers are fighting for their lives as a double elimination will see seven become five.

Ant & Dec's Limitless Win
Saturday, 8pm
3rd February
ITV1

Ant & Dec host the game show with the world's first limitless jackpot - every question is an opportunity to climb the endless money ladder and reach big money.

Best friends Terri and Jess - and husband and wife Paul and Ellie - each take on the Limitless Ladder as Ant and Dec try to help them win truly life-changing sums of money. Have either of the couples of players got what it takes to go home with a huge amount?

It'll Be Alright on the Night
Saturday, 9pm
3rd February
ITV1

David Walliams narrates another selection of bloopers, slip-ups and accidents from the archives featuring some of the small screen's biggest stars.

The biggest TV shows of 2023 share their funniest mistakes. A fly gets Louis Theroux into trouble with Judi Dench, a phone creates havoc on Dragons' Den, and a prop causes a nightmare for David Tennant on the set of Doctor Who, will the show go on?

Big Zuu's 12 Dishes in 12 Hours
Saturday, 10pm
3rd February
ITV1

In this funny and fast-paced series, Big Zuu teaches famous travel companions everything they need to know about vibrant destinations through tasting 12 dishes.

The host is joined by dancer Oti Mabuse as they eat their way around France's oldest city in Marseille - forget brie, baguettes and bourguignon, though, as Marseille is at the heart of a culinary revolution that's shaking up French food as we know it.

ITV Racing Live: Dublin Festival
Sunday, 12.50pm
4th February
ITV1

Oli Bell presents the second day of the Dublin Racing Festival from Leopardstown that features the Irish Champion Hurdle alongside racing from Musselburgh.

The feature meeting of the day is at Leopardstown as the Irish Champion Hurdle takes centre stage on a glittering card which will have a whole host of clues ahead of March 2024's Cheltenham Festival. Analysis is provided by Tom Scudamore and Kevin Blake.

Dancing on Ice
Sunday, 6.20pm
4th February
ITV1

A team of well-known personalities train in the expert art of dancing on ice so that they are ready to compete against each other in a live ice skating championship.

The Greatest Show on Ice continues with the remaining 10 celebrities and their partners battling it out to avoid elimination in the skate-off - as always, Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean head up our ice panel alongside Ashley Banjo and Oti Mabuse.

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?
Sunday, 8pm
4th February
ITV1

Jeremy Clarkson hosts the tense game show where contestants compete to win one million pounds by answering 15 questions correctly with just three lifelines to hand.

That number of questions may not sound like a lot, but it's been the undoing of many a contestant on this show - as six new challengers line up to try for a life-changing onemillion-pound jackpot, will anyone have what it takes to provide 15 correct answers?

Trigger Point
Sunday, 9pm
4th February
ITV1

The second episode in the second series of the drama following Lana Washington, a highly experienced bomb disposal officer who works for the Metropolitan Police.

A lone male is spotted running from a high-rise building in Docklands and immediately suspected of involvement in the drone attack on the power station. However, it becomes clear he couldn't have done it alone, leading to a horrifying discovery for Lana.

The Dry
Sunday, 10.15pm
4th February
ITV1

Sharply funny drama about newly sober thirty-something Shiv, who returns home for her grandmother's funeral to an unexpected welcome by her dysfunctional family...

Shiv bonds with her new sponsor Karen, who encourages her to do a 'moral inventory', but she is horrified when she happens upon her dad and his acupuncturist in the throes of passion in a city alleyway. Meanwhile, Bernie worries about her missing neighbour.

Born from the Same Stranger
Monday, 9pm
5th February
ITV1

This incredible series gives people born from donors the chance to trace hidden relatives that they had no idea existed and solve mysteries about their identities.

Corinne learns the female gynaecologist who organised her conception in 1959 used only a small number of donors to produce more than 300 children and realises she could be one of multiple half-siblings born to the same donor in a very real phenomenon...

Boris Becker: The Rise and Fall
Tuesday, 9pm
6th February
ITV1

This series uses unseen footage and interviews to tell the inside story of how Boris Becker - one of the world's greatest sporting stars - ended up in Wandsworth jail.

The first of two parts tracks Becker's rise from the dusty tennis courts of Leimen to winning the Queen's Club Championships and Wimbledon in 1985 at the age of 17, then onwards to becoming world number one and a global sporting superstar.

Grantchester
Thursday, 9pm
8th February
ITV1

Crime drama about the quiet parish of Grantchester in Cambridgeshire and the local vicar who feels compelled to help one local copper solve murders and mysteries.

When two men are poisoned and one dies, Elliot hands the case to Larry while Geordie is placed on desk duty... is he trying to force Geordie out? When signs point to Russian spies, they turn to Geordie for help. Elsewhere, Will's erratic behaviour causes concern.

After the Flood,
Friday 9pm 9th
February ITV1

A mystery thriller, set in a town hit by a devastating flood, that follows a PC who is determined to crack the case of an unidentified man found dead in a car park lift.

Molly's accident leads to a reconciliation between Jo and Pat and they agree to look into Daniel's murder together - however, when Tasha presents evidence that could finally steer them to the killer, Jo chooses to investigate this new lead without him.

Love Island: All Stars: Unseen Bits
Saturday, 9pm

Love Island: All Stars
Sunday-Friday, 9pm
3rd February-9th February
ITV2

This series gives famous former Islanders another shot at finding the one - relationships will be put to the test, heads will turn, and only one pair can triumph.

It's the fourth week and more days in paradise for our All Stars still lie ahead - there are plenty of twists and turns in store but none of them will want to say goodbye this week. As always, viewers can catch up with unseen bits from the show on Saturdays at 9pm.

Olivia Attwood:
Getting Filthy Rich
Sunday, 10.05pm
4th February
ITV2

The return of the documentary series that follows reality star Olivia Attwood as she explores the new and uncharted world of selling sex in an uncompromising fashion.

The first episode in the new run sees Olivia look at a new phenomenon called the Girlfriend Experience - where men pay women for an intimate connection mentally and sometimes physically - and try to find out why men feel this desire to pay for company.

itvBe Weekly highlights

My Mom, Your Dad: USA
Wednesday, 10pm
7th February
ITVBe

Yvonne Orji hosts the American version of the relationship show about a group of single parents nominated by their college-age kids for a second chance at love.

After a shocking departure rocks the group, the Second Chance Retreat's remaining parents get a chance to recentre with the help of a shaman and some words of wisdom from their children - whose relationship will be boosted the most by this experience?

Botched
Thursday, 10pm
7th February
ITVBe

US reality series in which two of California's most respected plastic surgeons look at cases of surgery that have gone badly wrong and try to help those affected by them.

In a new-to-ITVBe episode, Dr Dubrow helps a wife who feels betrayed after a disastrous mummy makeover in Mexico where her husband secretly told the surgeon to give her implants, and Dr Nassif attempts to repair horrible scarring on a woman's neck.

Joanna Lumley's Hidden
Caribbean: Havana to Haiti
Sunday, 9pm
4th February
ITV3

Joanna Lumley travels across two of the most enigmatic countries in the Caribbean - Cuba and Haiti - to explore and uncover the hidden gems that they have to offer.

In the first episode of a two-part series, Joanna kicks off her adventure in Havana by meeting one of Cuba's rising female boxing stars and the stars of the city's National Hotel's cabaret before paying a visit to a beach favoured by writer Ernest Hemingway.

Downton Abbey
Monday-Friday, 5.50pm
5th-9th February
ITV3

Maggie Smith, Hugh Bonneville and Elizabeth McGovern star in the glittering period drama following the lives of the aristocratic Crawley family at their historic estate.

This week's episodes see preparations for the wedding of Mr Carson and Mrs Hughes get under way, the family and servants get surprised by the return of another old friend in unexpected circumstances, and Mary left reeling when Henry races at Brooklands.

Darts: The Masters
Saturday, 12.45pm
Sunday, 12.45pm & 7pm
3rd & 4th February
ITV4

Jacqui Oatley presents coverage of the 2024 Masters as the world's top 24 darts players look to win the first major since Luke Humphries became world champion.

The weekend begins with the first second-round matches on Saturday afternoon before the quarter-finals on Sunday afternoon and the final session on Sunday night - analysis of all of the matches is supplied by Chris Mason, Alan Warriner-Little and Mark Webster.

All Elite Wrestling
Tuesday, 11.40pm
Wednesday, 11.40pm
Friday, 10.40pm
6th, 7th & 9th February
ITV4

Hard-hitting action from the world of All Elite Wrestling, where the roster features world-class talent who bring a freshness and energy into professional wrestling.

Join the likes of Powerhouse Hobbs, Claudio Castagnoli and Ricky Starks for Rampage on Tuesday, Bryan Danielson, FTR, The House of Black, Thunder Rosa, Miro and more for Collision on Wednesday, and Jon Moxley and Chris Jericho for Dynamite on Friday night.